

Executive Rewards Training Course

5 – 9 September 2027
Kuala Lumpur (Malaysia)

Executive Rewards Training Course

Ref: 15824_329471 Date: 5 – 9 September 2027 Location: Kuala Lumpur (Malaysia) Fees: 4600 Euro

Introduction:

The Executive Rewards training course provides an overview of the strategies, frameworks, and best practices for designing and implementing an effective executive compensation and incentive program. This course is tailored for HR professionals, compensation specialists, and senior leaders who aim to attract, retain, and motivate top executive talent.

Participants will gain into the key components of executive rewards, including base salary, bonuses, stock options, and long-term incentives. They will understand the importance of aligning these rewards with business goals and shareholder value. Attendees will create competitive and legally compliant executive compensation packages that drive performance and organizational success.

The Executive Rewards training offers insights into executive rewards and compensation structures, focusing on total rewards executive strategies. Participants will understand executive-level rewards, including the components of executive remuneration and how to design effective executive remuneration policies. It defines executive remuneration and explains its meaning.

This Executive Rewards course will explore executive director remuneration and best practices for creating executive remuneration reports and ensure that HR professionals are well-equipped to manage and implement HR rewards at the executive level. Understanding executive remuneration is key to developing competitive and compliant reward systems.

Targeted Groups:

- Senior HR Professionals.
- Compensation and Benefits Managers.
- Executive Leadership Teams.
- Talent Management Specialists.
- Organizational Development Experts.
- Compensation Consultants.
- Corporate Governance Officers.
- Payroll Managers.
- Corporate Legal Advisors.
- Recruiters specializing in executive talent.

Course Objectives:

At the end of this Executive Rewards course, the participants will be able to:

- Understand the key components of executive compensation.
- Learn how to design competitive and effective incentive programs.
- Align executive rewards with business goals and performance metrics.
- Gain insights into legal and regulatory compliance in executive compensation.
- Develop strategies to attract, retain, and motivate top executive talent.
- Explore best practices for market benchmarking and competitive analysis.
- Create compensation packages that align with shareholder value.
- Learn how to communicate executive rewards packages effectively.
- Understand governance principles in executive compensation decisions.
- Enhance skills in evaluating and adjusting executive reward programs.

Targeted Competencies:

By the end of this Executive Rewards training, the participant's competencies will:

- Executive Compensation Strategy Development.
- Incentive Plan Design and Implementation.
- Pay-for-Performance Alignment.
- Legal and Regulatory Compliance in Executive Rewards.
- Executive Talent Retention Techniques.
- Market Benchmarking and Competitive Analysis.
- Executive Benefits and Perquisites Management.
- Performance Metrics and Evaluation.
- Communication of Executive Compensation Packages.
- Governance and Shareholder Considerations.

Course Content:

Unit 1: Introduction to Executive Rewards:

- Overview of executive compensation and its role in organizational strategy.
- Key components of executive rewards: base salary, bonuses, stock options, and benefits.
- The importance of aligning executive compensation with business goals.
- Understanding the impact of executive rewards on organizational performance.
- Historical trends and evolution of executive compensation practices.
- Differentiating executive rewards from other employee compensation packages.
- Global perspectives on executive compensation and cultural considerations.

Unit 2: Designing Effective Executive Compensation Plans:

- Steps for designing competitive compensation packages for executives.
- Identifying and assessing the right mix of pay elements.
- Pay-for-performance structures and incentive plans.
- Setting up long-term incentive programs e.g., stock options, equity-based compensation.
- The role of bonuses and short-term incentives in executive compensation.
- Tailoring compensation to different executive levels C-suite, senior leadership.
- Evaluating compensation packages against industry benchmarks.
- Managing salary caps and performance-based thresholds.

Unit 3: Legal and Regulatory Considerations in Executive Rewards:

- Key laws and regulations governing executive compensation.
- Understanding the role of the SEC, IRS, and other regulatory bodies.
- Compliance with the Dodd-Frank Act, Sarbanes-Oxley, and other relevant legislation.
- The role of shareholder approval and transparency in executive pay.
- Addressing the concerns of activist shareholders and public scrutiny.
- Risk management in executive compensation packages.
- Ensuring tax efficiency in executive reward programs.
- Protecting the organization from legal challenges related to compensation.

Unit 4: Attracting, Retaining, and Motivating Executive Talent:

- Understanding the key drivers for executive attraction and retention.
- Crafting compelling compensation packages to recruit top executives.
- Aligning rewards with long-term organizational strategy and growth.
- The role of executive perks and benefits in retention.
- Using performance metrics to motivate high-level executives.
- Balancing fixed and variable pay to drive executive behavior.
- The importance of non-monetary rewards e.g., career development opportunities.
- Benchmarking compensation against competitors to ensure market competitiveness.

Unit 5: Executive Compensation Governance and Best Practices:

- The role of the board of directors in overseeing executive pay.
- Best practices for structuring compensation committees and boards.
- The relationship between governance, transparency, and executive pay.
- Shareholder engagement and feedback on executive compensation packages.
- How to handle executive compensation during mergers, acquisitions, and IPOs.
- Implementing ethical guidelines in executive compensation decisions.
- Using external advisors and consultants to ensure fairness and competitiveness.
- Conducting regular reviews and audits of executive compensation packages.