Ref.: 15179_251971 Date: 29 Jul - 09 Aug 2024 Location: Barcelona (Spain) Fees: 8500 Euro

Introduction:

Product management is at the core of any business that sells products. Done well, it delivers strategic insights, optimized resources, and bottom-line results.

This course covers all the key areas of product management and product marketing focused on B2B and B2C in the Telecoms, IT, and Software industries.

The course marries best practice, theory, and practical techniques to explain what has to be done and how to do it. Participants are provided with detailed checklists, templates, and course notes to use as references when they return to the office. This course builds the skills and knowledge that usually only comes with many years of experience.
