Introduction:

The Procurement function has developed from a simple administrative function to a fully-fledged strategic business unit. No longer is it sufficient to simply turn requisitions into orders and then await the delivery of the goods or services.

The development and implementation of carefully crafted strategies for the acquisition of all materials, goods, equipment, and services have become a critical issue in all organizations wishing to reduce operating costs while improving quality and productivity.

In this course, we will explore the strategic role of the procurement function and how this department can contribute to the entire organization. Supplier evaluation, negotiation, tendering and contract management will be discussed to maximize the contribution of the procurement department.
