Introduction:

What do the 2010 British Petroleum spill, the disappearance of Malaysia Airlines flight MH 370, and the financial crisis of 2008 have in common? These unexpected crises rocked the world and created seemingly insurmountable Public Relations PR challenges for the organizations involved.

This crisis communication and media management course allows participants to identify how a crisis can impact an organization and what should be done to mitigate its effects. The crisis communication and media management course focuses on preparing the communication function to respond rapidly and effectively to manage perceptions in the media and online.

Attending this media crisis management course will teach you best practices in crisis communication management, situation analysis, risk assessment, crisis team formation and responsibilities, protocols, and resources such as crisis manuals and communication tools. This course is essential for those aiming to achieve a crisis communications certificate.

Enhancing Your Crisis Communications PR Skills:

Develop your expertise in PR crisis management with our hands-on crisis communication seminar. This seminar portion of the training course is designed to provide practical experience and reinforce the topics covered throughout the course, imbibing key learnings that would prepare participants for real-world crisis scenarios.

The crisis communication and media management course is invaluable for those seeking to deepen their understanding of what crisis communication is in public relations and how to navigate a media crisis effectively.
