Leading with Excellence: Conference & Workshop for Leaders

Ref.: 8020_262541 Date: 12 - 20 May 2025 Location: Munich (Germany) Fees: 8500 Euro

Introduction

In today's high-stakes business environment, the competitive edge hinges on a leader's proficiency in negotiation, communication, and implementation of new planning and organization processes to enhance productivity. Delegating can empower staff, driving superior performance and facilitating successful change management.

This leading with excellence conference will equip you with negotiation, persuasion, critical thinking skills, and best practices for planning and organizing work to foster a culture of leadership excellence.

Negotiation is inevitably at the heart of every process to achieve what you want or need to build an alliance or work with consultants or suppliers. At the end of each negotiation, the goal is to seek a win-win agreement. Negotiation, persuasion, and critical thinking are the skills covered in the first half of this leadership excellence conference.

Businesses, and indeed, all organizations, need more productive methods of planning, more appropriate goals, and effective means of accomplishing work. A focus on using productive best practices allows for effective and efficient management of work and making changes in the organization. Planning and organizing work and delegating to build a strong team are the skills learned in the second half of this conference.

The Excellence in Leadership Journey

This leadership excellence program segment focuses on honing the skills of leaders to foster leadership excellence. Participants will explore the facets of excellent leadership, including the attributes that distinguish exceptional leaders from the rest and methods to lead with excellence. The journey covers hands-on experiences in situation analysis, decision-making, and steering organizational direction with proficiency and ethical consideration.

This leading with excellence workshop is designed to pinpoint and instill leading to excellence in leadership within the operational sphere. Participants will engage in exercises that compel leaders to optimize workflows, streamline processes, and challenge the status quo to achieve operational excellence, further strengthening their leadership toolkit.
