Introduction:

Do you want your people to deliver extraordinary performance? Do you want your people to achieve great things and fulfill their potential? Do you want an organizational culture that engages your people? If your answer is yes, you must put the building blocks into place to create an inspirational organization that motivates and empowers your people. Inspirational leaders are visionaries who seek and generate momentum for change. They make a shared vision that engages their people and a culture where people value themselves, each other, the company, and the customers.

Change is a fact of life in all teams, organizations, and countries. Change leadership is vital, and no matter what activities a Leader or Manager becomes involved in, from strategy implementation to making simple amendments to a working system, all require change leadership skills. Every time a Leader or Manager makes a decision, some change occurs. This strategy, culture, and change management course provides guidelines on best practices, current best practices, and skills development in organizational change.

Developing a Change Management Strategy Framework:

Under this new subheading, we delve into creating and implementing a change management strategy framework. This strategy, culture, and change management course includes defining the change management strategy, understanding the types of change management strategies, and exploring a plan for managing cultural change.
