

Commanding Presence: Advanced Communication and Presentation Skills

Commanding Presence: Advanced Communication and Presentation Skills

Introduction

This highly interactive program has a dual focus. Week one combines communication and interpersonal skills and reveals tried and tested tools used by many blue-chip companies that generate successful personal and organizational outcomes. Participants will explore their own behavioral and leadership styles and learn how to fully engage and develop employees by using state-of-the-art techniques grounded in Neuro-Linguistic Programming NLP, Emotional Intelligence EI, and psychometric testing.

Week two explores the practical art of communicating to groups and larger audiences. In today's business world, presenting with clarity and confidence is an increasingly valued leadership skill, yet many people have a fear of communicating with larger groups and audiences.

This advanced communication and presentation skills course will take the stress out of presenting by offering a series of strategies that facilitate perfect presentations and give the presenter a commanding presence.
