Strategic Planning & Management Training Course

Introduction

This seminar is designed to provide leaders and professionals with transformational tools and techniques to help them maximize their and their team's creative potential in a strategic context. Its starting point is self-discovery: participants in the strategic planning and management training course will work on the inside first and then focus outwards to impact the business world.

The first week of this strategic planning and management course will focus on thinking differently. The participants of the strategic planning and management course should be prepared to move out of their comfort zones and experiment with new ways of creating and communicating an inspiring leadership vision.

The second week of this strategic planning and management course helps demystify the frequently misunderstood concept of 'strategy.' While focusing on the analytical disciplines on which a successful strategy is based, it centers on strategic planning as a value-adding process that harnesses the leader's and the team's ability to combine analysis with creative thinking and enables ideas and plans to be nurtured to reality.
