Professionals Course

Contract Excellence for Non-Legal Professionals Course

Introduction:

Every organization's commercial and business structure is fundamentally grounded on the bedrock of contracts, ranging from straightforward purchase orders or verbal agreements to the labyrinthine complexity of intricate financing arrangements. The formation, negotiation, and management of these contracts often fall under the purview of specialized professionals.

However, those in charge of ensuring the delivery of products, services, or projects—typically general managers—may not understand the complexities of the contractual documents. This contract excellence for non-legal professionals course aims to provide professional managers from non-legal backgrounds with a robust understanding of the contract processes and inculcated issues, thereby amplifying their management acumen.
