Commanding Presence: Advanced Communication and Presentation Skills Workshop

Workshop Introduction:

This highly interactive communication and presentation skills program has a dual focus. The first week combines communication and presentation skills, utilizing tools adopted by leading companies for successful personal and organizational outcomes. Participants will delve into their behavioral and leadership styles, honing advanced presentation skills and discovering how to leverage techniques from Neuro-Linguistic Programming NLP, Emotional Intelligence EI, and psychometric testing to develop their command presence training.

The second week is dedicated to the practical aspects of communicating with groups and larger audiences. Presenting with clarity and confidence is an essential leadership skill that can be sharpened with effective presentation skills training. This part of the communication and presentation skills workshop aims to alleviate the anxiety associated with public speaking by offering strategies to craft perfect presentations employing executive presentation skills to establish a commanding presence.
